Lopez et al. v. Wetzel
#21-CV-1819 (M.D. Pa)

Esteemed Counselor:

Good day. I have received a letter from you (dated 12/29/2022) in which you claim that your office received a letter from me requesting production of documents.

But I have sent no such letter.

As pro se litigants, we plaintiffs are not legally permitted to represent each other. Any correspondence you may have received, or will receive, from any of my co-plaintiffs must not be treated as though any of us speak for any other. The only exceptions are documents that are explicitly marked as "joint" and accompanied by a joint signature page.

I intend to pursue discovery independently. That means I will be submitting separate requests for documents, interrogatories, requests for admissions, etc. under cover of my own letterhead. I have sent none yet.

Kindly stand by.

Yours Very Truly,

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "Richard A. Poplawski", is written over a light blue rectangular background.
